

2010 News Archive

Have your say

Residents are at the heart of everything we do and you now have the chance to help shape the services you want in the future. Have your say now and you could win £150 of gift vouchers

Snap up an iPad

Whether you are a keen photographer or just enjoy taking snaps, we want you to go out and about this summer and take pictures of the people and places that make up your neighbourhood

Local families move in before Christmas

Christmas has come early for the residents of Ocean's new homes in Poldory View & Villas, Carharrack

World Cup fever hits Ocean

The World Cup has already kicked off at Ocean Housing with staff from across the world flying their flags from its headquarters in St Austell

Latest news from the Tenant Services Authority and the National Conversation

All aboard Eden's Big Green Bus

This half term, Ocean residents stepped aboard Eden's Big Green Bus to explore how they can have fun going green.

Cornwall Construction Hits Gold

Cornish Construction company Gilbert & Goode has swept the board at the Considerate Constructors 2010 National Site Awards held in London.

Crowan School makes history

Pupils from Crowan Primary School took part in a naming ceremony today for the new road that is part of a £ 1.7 million affordable housing development in Praze an Beeble.

Full steam ahead for 500th new home

Ocean Group Chairman, Mark Clare, arrived on a steam engine to open Ocean's 500th new affordable home in Cornwall.

Indian Queens pupils on Eco Tour

Gilbert & Goode gave 200 pupils from Indian Queens Primary school a special Eco Tour of the new affordable homes recently completed at Fraddon for Ocean Housing

Ocean tackles climate change and fuel poverty

Ocean Housing, with partners Cornwall Council, is aspiring to produce the most innovative homes for pensioners, with the lowest fuel bills in the country and some of the lowest carbon emissions achievable in new homes.

Ocean welcomes Junior Wardens

Eight young people from St Blazey have become Ocean's first Junior Wardens. During their summer holidays they joined Ocean's own community wardens, Michael and Kevin, as part of a trial project.

Ocean's 12 - You're Hired

The Ocean Housing Group is breaking the current economic trend of job cuts by employing twelve apprentices across a wide range of trades, from traditional carpentry and construction to information technology and business administration.

Pedal power for Cornwall Hospice Care

Twelve members of Ocean staff put on their red lycra to cycle a gruelling 65 miles in some of the UK's most demanding terrain on Dartmoor National Park

©2012 Ocean Housing
Built on Cubik